"Lest We Forget: Remembering in Hope"

As we approach Remembrance Sunday, we pause to honour those who have served, suffered, and laid down their lives in times of conflict.

Remembering is never just looking backward with grief; it is an active prayer for peace in our own day. In the words of Scripture: "They shall beat their swords into ploughshares, and their spears into pruning hooks" (Isaiah 2:4).

This November, let us hold two things together: our solemn gratitude for those who went before us, and our daily commitment to being agents of reconciliation and Christ's peace in our homes, communities, and world.

O LORD, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth! Psalm 8 v 1
