“I NEED A FACE”

There is a story of a little boy, whose mother decided that he was old enough to say his evening prayers on his own. However, he soon came back downstairs, so his mother said, “what is the problem”. He replied, “I need a face!”

I know we see each other’s faces on Zoom and when we Face Time, but it is not quite the same as meeting face to face. That is why I am pleased to say that we will, barring any unforeseen events, begin to meet for worship in Chapel again from March 7th, when I hope to lead the Service.

We will have to adhere to the same guidelines as before, wear masks and keep a safe distance, before, during and after the service. We will be delighted to see you, but I have to ask you to check with me beforehand that there is a seat available. It’s not brilliant but it is a new start and let’s hope and pray that this time there will be no going back.

Every blessing
Tony

THE MAN ON THE DONKEY (PALM SUNDAY)

It is fairly quiet – just an ordinary day –
The house to clean, give the animals hay.
But wait – what’s going on? What do they say?
Someone is coming – coming this way!

He must be important, just look at the crowd
All getting excited and lining the road.
They’re throwing their robes down on the ground,
And waving palm leaves with a swishing sound.

Here he comes – who is it? Who can it be?
A man on a donkey is all I can see!
The people are shouting – oh what a noise –
And singing and praising - so full of joy.

It seems it is Jesus – the one called God’s Son –
And they’re praising Him for all He has done.
He’s healed the sick and raised the dead.
He stilled a storm and five thousand fed.

They say He was born to be a great King.
And for all of us salvation to bring!
They’re passing by now and starting to go
On to Jerusalem through the valley below.

What a special sight for me to see –
I wonder – I wonder - what it will mean for me?
