CHURCH COUNCIL MEETING – 17 OCTOBER 2021

The morning service will be followed by a
Bring & Share lunch and the Church Council Meeting.

Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good;
his love ensures forever. Psalm 107:1

Pastoral letter

A big thank you to everyone who supported our harvest lunch - we raised a substantial sum towards our Tear Fund and World Vision child sponsorship schemes. Also thank you for all the items for the Foodbank.

This month we can look forward to our first Café Church since lockdown. Being held in the Village Hall, it is an attempt by church & chapel to reach out together into the community. I particularly hope that some of our families come along as we will hear from Anna Pile, our circuit children and families worker. It will be interesting to hear how someone born in Russia has been led to West Oxfordshire. It will not be like church as you know it and we will start with coffee and bacon butties, croissants, pain au chocolat and toast and marmalade. So plenty of time to meet old and new friends, Anna's story, a short prayer and home in good time for lunch.

Let's hope and pray that we get through the coming winter without a big surge of Covid with all its consequences.

Every blessing.

Tony
